

AN EDUCATION SHOULDN'T BE INACCESSIBLE.

We can ensure the continued vitality of Minnesota by making school success a reality for all students. Looking ahead, the supply of college-educated Minnesotans won't keep pace with our state's needs. The number of high school graduates is forecast to fall, leading to fewer college graduates. Meanwhile, the economy's demand for college-educated employees will double. It's a challenge we all face. You can learn more, discuss the issues and get involved — all at www.LearnmoreMN.org
